

In accordance with the extraordinary measure issued by the Czech government are suspended trade fairs and other events at PVA EXPO Prague exhibition grounds.

Prague, March 10, 2020 – In accordance with adverse course of epidemiological situation concerning incidence of disease COVID – 19 brought about by the new coronavirus designated SARS – CoV-2 in Europe, the Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic decrees extraordinary measure, which bans organization of events with participation by more than 100 persons being in force since the 10 March 2020, 6:00 p.m.

On the ground of this extraordinary measure company ABF, a.s. is constrained to suspend date of trade fairs FOR CARAVAN, FOR BOAT, FOR BIKES, festival Around the World and spring sets of housing trade fairs FOR HABITAT, FOR INTERIOR, FOR GARDEN and DESIGN SHAKER as well. We are monitoring current situation and proceeding in conformity with recommendations given by the Hygienic station of the capital Prague and the Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic. In case that health and security reasons will be ceased and organization of mass events will be enable again, we will immediately inform visitors about new date of trade fairs and exhibitions through www.pvaexpo.cz or via social networks.

Visitors, who already bought entry tickets for trade fairs and other events in advance sale, will receive full amount of money back via account transfer.

We intensely cooperate with exhibitors and business partners in order to minimize losses caused by this extraordinary measure. All matters related to contracts, orders and financial costs resulting from unrealized trades and exhibitions will be solved on an individual basis with directors of individual business teams and individual trade fairs managers, who will find solutions which would allow to get over this extraordinary situation.

We do hope mentioned measure will be valid only for short period, we are looking forward to see our exhibitors, partners and visitors as soon as possible during popular exhibitions and trade fairs at PVA EXPO PRAHA in Letňany.
